

SITI hotlist™ - Global talent exchange

SITI hotlist™ is a revolutionary next generation solution that empowers consulting services organizations with the ability to effectively manage and exchange their resources. With SITI hotlist™ consulting services organizations can increase recruitment efficiency, optimize resources and maximize revenues.

Increase recruitment efficiency with on-line collaboration: Customers can reach out to the global market in an easy web based environment to place bench resources and fill open opportunities within minutes, dramatically improving recruitment efficiency.

Optimize resources with real-time Intelligence: gain a truly transparent view of your entire global talent pool and the intelligence to track and monitor changes instantaneously. SITI hotlist™ helps you to improve your decision-making through real-time availability of better quality information. You can finally reduce external hiring through better utilization and in fact optimization of internal resources.

Maximize revenues with Supply Chain integration: Integrate your trading partners (customers, subcontractors, candidates, applicants, third party providers) into your system to conduct seamless, on-line transactions with them. Integrating your entire Supply Chain results in faster fulfillment at lowest costs, in turn maximizing revenues.

Employer, Consulting or Staffing firm

- Market your available consultants to our network of employers
- Acquire new clients and stay connected to your key clients and consultants
- Identify and manage your bench resources and effectively source assignments
- Market and place your consultants and also gain new clients
- Search for sub-contract resources

Individual Job Seeker / Freelance or Independent Consultant

- Post your profile / resume for free
- Promote your profile directly to companies and vendors
- Find engagements faster
- Stay connected to companies, vendors and peers
- Market your expertise to 100's of firms and employers